

Junior Board Member Code of Conduct & Expectations

As a Junior Red Angus (JRA) Board member, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the expectations outlined in the JRA Board of Directors Candidate Guide. I recognize that this leadership role is a significant commitment, and I agree to prioritize my responsibilities as a JRA Board member above other extracurricular activities—such as sports, camps, or social events—unless prior arrangements have been made with the Junior Advisor.

By accepting this position, I commit to fully engaging in the JRA’s mission and activities and representing the organization with professionalism, integrity, and enthusiasm.

As a JRA Board member, I will strive to uphold the key qualities that earned me this opportunity, including:

- Leadership – Setting a positive example and serving as a role model for fellow members
- Responsibility – Meeting deadlines, attending required events, and following through on tasks
- Teamwork – Supporting fellow board members and working collaboratively
- Professionalism – Communicating respectfully and conducting myself with maturity
- Creativity & Innovation – Contributing new ideas and solutions to help the JRA grow
- Flexibility & Positivity – Adapting to challenges with a good attitude and open mind
- Youthful Spirit – Engaging with energy, joy, and authenticity in everything I do

Our organization is dynamic and forward-thinking, and it requires its Board of Directors to lead with passion and purpose. By signing below, I affirm my understanding of these expectations and commit to fulfilling my duties to the best of my ability.
